Re: United States v. Luka Klasinc,
21 Cr. 443 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

On November 10, 2021, the parties in the above-captioned case appeared before this Court for a bail hearing. Upon the application of the defense and over the objection of the Government, the Court has ordered the defendant's release upon satisfaction of the following conditions:

- $1,000,000 person recognizance bond, secured by:
  - $585,000 in equity from the property owned by Robert Knox located at [REDACTED];
  - $415,000 cash;
- Home incarceration at [REDACTED], to be enforced by location monitoring (technology to be determined by pretrial services);
- Location monitoring to be installed prior to release from custody;

The following conditions shall apply to the defendant's release:

- Defendant is to be transported by counsel to [REDACTED] immediately upon release from federal custody;
- Counsel shall notify Pretrial Services Officer Laura Gialanella upon arrival at [REDACTED];
- Strict pretrial supervision;
- The defendant shall have no visitors without prior approval from pretrial services and the Government;
- The defendant may not possess internet capable devices;
- The defendant may not access the internet;
- The defendant's computer access shall be limited to discovery review in the presence of counsel;
